Queen and Court Selected; Three Days of Events Begin Tonight

Eastern Michigan College students began a gala three-day weekend of activities for the 1958 Homecoming celebration today.

A prelude to the big weekend came yesterday with the announcement that Pat Dunaway has been chosen as Eastern's 1958 Homecoming Queen.

Pat was named to reign over the weekend of activities before a massive audience of students that jammed Pease Auditorium Wednesday morning for the annual Homecoming assembly. As a cheering crowd of EMC supporters watched the five candidates for the honored post mount the lavishly-decorated stage, last year's Queen, Gail Ponte, crowned Pat, who ascended onto the oversize throne.

Completing the Queen's entourage as court members are Cathy Brady, Nancy Glasson, Karen Luecke and Andy Tibble. The five were chosen from a slate of ten candidates in all-campus elections Monday.

The big assembly heard top sportscaster Bob Reynolds of WJR radio act as master of ceremonies. Other speakers were President Eugene B. Elliott; Ann Waldo, president of Women's League; and Charles Crickmore, Men's Union president. Dominic Phelps, Homecoming general chairman, presided at the assembly.

"The vote for Queen candidates was much heavier this year than before," League president Ann Waldo reported to the assembly. "I think it should make the winners very flattered."

Homecoming festivities continue this afternoon and evening. At 4:00, Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity will sponsor the "chick relay" as a new segment of Homecoming weekend. (See details on sports page.)

On tonight's agenda is an open house sponsored by the office of Students Affairs at McKenny Hall. Jim Murray's band will play for dancers in the ballroom and record dancing will also be held in the Women's Lounge.

Coffee and donuts will be free for the asking tonight and the price of billiards will be absolutely nothing. Bowling fees will be cut in half.

On Friday evening, a cabaret style jamboree is planned from 8:00 to 12:00 p.m. in the McKenny Hall ballroom. The Skylark Band will entertain and guest of honor will be "Uncle" Bob Barber, an alumnus of EMC's class of 1892.

The weekend's three big events — parade, game and dance — are on the agenda for Saturday.

The big parade, in which clubs, fraternities and sororities have entered more than a score of colorful floats, will begin at Forest and Washtenaw Ave. at 10:00 a.m. — and the football game starts at 1:00 p.m. (See sports page.)

Three bands will play for the big Homecoming Dance Saturday night. Two lounges, as well as the big McKenny Ballroom, where Johnny Harbard's band will play, will be used for dancing. Tickets, at $2.50 a couple, are on sale at the McKenny grill.

Anti-Polio Drive Stepped Up Here

Polio shots are still being given daily to currently enrolled students at Eastern Michigan College and to college employed personnel who request it.

Immunization has stepped up since the advent of the polio epidemic outbreak in Detroit, although the voluntary program started about a year ago.

Injections are being given at the Health Center between 1:00 and 4:00 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays and from 9:00 to 12:00 a.m. on Thursdays and Fridays. The fee for each shot is one dollar.

"Timing of the intervals is very important," Dr. Olga Sirola, director of Health Service said, "and three injections are deemed essential for adequate protection."

The Health Service will give the second or third shot if the first has been given elsewhere but a student is asked to present evidence of the date when the injections were given.

Minors who desire shots must present a parental permission slip.

Each student who completes the series of three shots is given a wallet size medical card denoting the time when the shots were given.

Women's League Comm. Service Program In Swing

The Women's League Community Service program is offering service opportunities for everyone on campus this semester.

Students can be a part of the program whether they are in education or any of the other courses offered at EMC.

Schools and community agencies, including Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, the State Hospital and the Recreation Association need and want help. Students need work only one hour per week, or more, if they prefer.

The Community Service will help students decide what kind of service they would like to perform and set up a schedule for their convenience. Students on the education curriculum who have not yet done the required eight hours of service with children should act now.

Those interested may go to the Library and sign up for an appointment with Prof. Margaret Robinson, faculty coordinator. There is a table designated for this purpose on the second-floor foyer.

Players Ready With One-Act Productions

On October 30, 31 and November 1, at 8:0 p.m., the play "The End of the Beginning" by Sean O'Casey, will be given in Roosevelt Auditorium. It is directed by Jerry Tewmey, Goodson Hall.

The theme of the humorous play is connected with the belief that only a woman can do a woman's work.

Richard Thiede, Brown Hall; and Pete Saputo, Goodison Hall; will sing an Irish duet," Down Where the Bees are Humming" which they are rehearsing for a county fair during the course of the play. Neither of these two men have ever sung on stage before. They are attempting to learn an Irish brogue and do the song at the same time.

Judy Krauss, Buell Hall, proves in the play that no man can do a woman's work, no matter how hard he tries.

Shiela Gnifke is the assistant director and also the pianist for the duet.

Tickets can be obtained at 116 Pierce or at the door.

"The End of the Beginning" is one of three one-act plays to be presented the same evening by EMC players. The others are "Aria da Capo" and Thornton Wilder's "The Happy Journey."

Well-Known Dance Team Kicks Off Music Program Next Tuesday at EMC

The dance team of Noro Kavach and Istvan Rabovsky will appear as the first program of the Women's League Community Concert Series next Tuesday, October 21, at Pease Auditorium.

The duo has built a reputation for themselves after performing for only three years in the west. Both dancers had stormy childhoods, dominated by poverty and Nazi terrors during the Second World War. They survived this ordeal to become leading dancers of the Russian School and since 1955 have enjoyed a rise to fame resulting from performances across the continents of Europe and America.

Both have recently appeared with the London Festival Ballet, Roland Petit's Ballet de Paris and have returned several times to the Ed Sullivan TV program.

Appearing with Kovach and Rabovsky, Sonia Arova and Job Sanders, also a ballet husband and wife team, will dance. Both with the American Ballet Theater, they have recently returned from an extensive Japanese tour. Sanders is known on Broadway as a Choreographer and leading dancer.

GROUP WHICH PLANNED HOMECOMING EVENTS

EMC'S HARD WORKING Homecoming Committee, pictured above, has been in charge of organizing this weekend's gala activities.

EDITORIAL . . .

How much time is one or two hours a week? It can be so easily spent; a cup of coffee at the Union, a chat, and it's gone.

Yet, one person with one or two hours a week can help some crippled students at Rackham School learn to swim, work with a Boys' Club group interested in photography, or give some children at Ypsilanti State Hospital aid in learning to read.

These and scores of other opportunities are being offered students through the Women's League Community Service Program.

Although one may make use of the program as one way of meeting the education department requirement for eight hours of work with children, participation is not limited to persons seeking this credit. Any student may take advantage of the opportunity to be of real service while gaining valuable experience.

At the present time, those administering the program could place many more students than have submitted applications. For example, Ypsilanti State Hospital alone needs one-hundred hours of community service assistance.

A couple of hours can be quickly wasted, or they can be used to gain a new insight into the needs and problems of children, explore a new vocational field, and become a real part of the local community.

The value of Community Service experience is recognized in that a report of an individual's service is included in his file in the college placement office. n. h.

Here's Schedule For Homecoming Parade; Many Floats Entered

Floats will assemble on the north side of Forest Ave., beginning at the rear of McKenny Hall. Each parade participant will be assigned a number which will designate the position in the parade. This number will also appear on the curb and sidewalk and will specify the place the unit will occupy.

Place your unit so that it is between the vertical lines. PRIOR TO THE ARRIVAL OF YOUR UNIT, please assign someone to locate the exact place for your unit.

The parade will proceed from Forest Ave., around the west end of McKenny to Cross St. — Cross St. to Adams — Adams to Michigan Ave. — Michigan Ave. to Huron St. — Huron St. to Forest Ave. — Forest Ave. to Perrin St., at which place the parade will disband. Winning floats will be taken out of the parade at Perrin St. and placed near the Stadium for viewing before and during the football game.

Floats will be judged on the basis of beauty, humor, originality, theme, and workmanship. If your unit has not been notified as being a winner, please remove it from the campus area immediately after reaching Perrin St. and Forest Ave.

If your unit has a breakdown along the parade route there will be people there assigned to help you remove it IMMEDIATELY so the parade may continue. THE COLLEGE WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR DAMAGE DONE TO ANY UNIT!

Letters to the Editor

Greek Talent Show

To the Editor:

There seems to be some confusion over the judging of the Greek Talent contests held during the past month at EMC.

The confusion has resulted, evidently, from rumors to the effect that judges for the event were connected with the winning Greek organizations.

This, of course, is untrue. For the record, I think it should be stated that neither of the two persons who judged the talent shows were alumni of or had any connection with the fraternities and sororities who entered the shows. I think it is a mark of poor sportsmanship on the part of those — individuals and Greek organizations alike — who spread rumors to the contrary.

Sincerely,
Interested Student

"Panty" Raid

To the Editor:

Three girls. Ten minutes before closing. One partially clad and talking on the phone, one taking a shower, one in pajamas doing her nails. A very innocent setting, isn't it? There was "no egging the boys on" whatsoever!

Even faster than suddenly the screen came flying into the room. Glass was shattered over the floor. Three girls were forced to run and lock themselves in the bathroom.

In the course of one minute, several boys ransacked our room. When we tallied our losses we discovered that sixty dollars worth of underclothing was gone.

This was a panty raid! This was one of the late evening pastimes of college boys!

Sixty dollars equals one dorm payment—sixty dollars equals one and a half week's work at a summer job—sixty dollars literally gone out the window!

Breaking and entering is a felony, theft is a misdemeanor. How does it feel to be full-fledged criminals, boys?

EMC Student's Book To Go On Sale

"I'm Handicapped for Life," a book written by EMC student Gerald Smoot, will be on sale at McKenny Hall Bookstore within the next few weeks.

Published by Vantage Press, the book recounts Gerry's life as a cerebral palsy victim, and gives some facts about the crippling disease.

Various chapters deal with Gerry's schooling, his parents, and his interests and hobbies. One chapter is devoted to describing the various attitudes "normal" persons have toward the handicapped, and explaining how these attitudes are helpful or harmful.

Gerry, now a sophomore, wrote the book while still in high school. The individual chapters appeared as a series of articles in the Detroit Free Press at that time.

Danish Gymnasts to Appear Here

A 28 member Danish Dance and Gym Team will present a ten event, 2½ hour performance at EMC's Bowen Field House at 8:00 p.m., October 22.

The gymnasts, the third group of Danish gymnasts to tour the U.S. and Canada, represent the finest in Danish gymnastics. They are the product of Folk High Schools and Gymnastic Organizations from all over Denmark.

The object of the team, under the direct sponsorship of Mr. Paul Clausen, is to present the ultimate in Danish physical education to the people of America. It is a non-profit venture made possible by the director and the savings of the people in the group.

The team arrived in the U. S. in September, 1958, and is presently touring from coast to coast and into Canada as well.

From U.S. press clippings came the following: "The Danish Gym Team received more applause than any other act at the Labor Day Celebration at Soldiers Field in Chicago. The performance was a high spot unrivaled on the program as far as the audience of 150,000 was concerned."

Also quoted is the following: "In Madison Square Garden the team gave an intermission presentation before 18,000, roaring their applause. The event was broadcast."

The program will consist of the following events: Entrance March, Primary Fundamental Gymnastics, Work on the Wall-bars, Courtesy Dances fo Olden Days, Advanced Gymnastics, Danish Folk Dances, Apparatus and Tumbling, and, finally, the Salutation and Exit March. All of the dances will be performed in their original costumes.

Tickets may be purchased locally from the Huron Hotel, at Charles McKenny Hall or from Mr. Bob Willoughby, head of intra-mural athletics at Eastern Michigan College. Students are also handling ticket sales on the campus. Tickets may be purchased at the door prior to the event.

The program is being sponsored by the Department of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Athletics.

Meet the Hurons

Captain Charlie Shonta

Charlie was born in Detroit and played football for Pershing High as an end. During his four years at Pershing, he was awarded the honor of being "All-City" in football and baseball. He was also "All-Conference" end in his junior year at Eastern.

A six foot, one hundred and ninety pound senior, Charlie is majoring in Physical Education and is active in Delta Sigma Phi social fraternity. He is single and lives in an apartment off-campus.

Charlie thinks this is one of the best teams that Eastern has ever fielded, but, due to bad breaks, has not indicated such statistically. An indication of this is the Central game in which the Hurons were supposedly obvious underdogs.

As for the homecoming game this Saturday, Charlie claims that Eastern having won every Homecoming game since he arrived on campus, is not about to alter the percedent now.

Many contend that Charlie is one of the best ends Eastern, has ever had, and he is considered sesnational both defensively and offensively.

Dave Longridge

Dave hails from Dearborn, where he played two years of high school ball at Fordson from 1948-50. After his high school days, Dave enlisted in the Navy for four years. When his Navy tenure was finished he entered EMC where he is now a junior.

He started to play just this season but reacts like a cool veteran when pressed into action. He does a good job of quarterbacking and is also a pretty fair punter.

Dave is a Physical Education major, single, and says that he belives the team in front of him is pretty good, but has had bad luck.

Since he is 5'10" and weighes 200 pounds, Dave throws a lot of football player around when he is quarterbacking the Hurons. He has a sinlgshot arm and is always dangerous on long passes.

In reference to the game Saturday, Dave says that he is quite confident that we will win as the team is definitely "up" for this one.

Harriers Roll On Toward IIAC Title

The Eastern Michigan cross-country team, showing the depth and endurance typical of George Marshall coached squad, were victorius in the two meets over the past weekend. They defeated the University of Chicago 15-49 and Northern Illinois University 24-31.

In the Chicago meet, the Eastern harriers accomplished a rare feat by taking the first six places. In this order the Hurons crossed the finish line: Mauri Jarmakka, Guerney Beach, Doug Carroll, Tom Blenkley, Emory Gravelle, and Dan Taylor. Howie Reindel and Eugene Jurikentz also participated but did not figure in the scoring.

Against Northern Illinois, one of Eastern's chief competitors for the I.I.A.C. crown, the outcome was a bit tighter. Jarmaka finished first again, Beach was third, Carroll, fourth; Blenkley, sixth, and Gravelle, tenth to reach the total twenty-four points accumulated by the Hurons.

If these two meets are an indication of things to come, the Hurons should take the I.I.A.C. crown, baring unforseen problems.

ATTENTION JUNIORS

A junior class meeting for the purpose of election of officers will be held Thursday, October 16, in Welch Auditorium at 4:00 p.m.

FOOTBALL TICKETS

Reserve seat tickets can be obtained for Saturday's homecoming game on Thursday and Friday from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. at Bowen Field House. Students must have their athletic ticket stubs with them.

HURON ELEVEN EAGERLY AWAITS HOMECOMING

The Eastern Michigan campus will be decorated this week for the pageantry which surrounds the typical Homecoming weekend. One of the foremost events of the day will be the football game at Briggs Stadium.

This contest will feature Eastern Illinois University and Eastern Michigan College. The Hurons will be definite favorites due to past performances.

Despite their one-point setback of one week ago, the Hurons still have a fundamentally good ball team, if not one of Coach Fred Trosko's best. The Eastern Michigan club came out of the Central game relatively unscratched and should be in top physical shape for this encounter.

On the other hand, the Panthers, while improved from their squads of the last two years (against whom the Hurons have piled up a massive 104 points), apparently have not improved enough. They have lost their first two league frays; 24-12 to Northern and 29-8 to Southern.

This is a must game for the Hurons if they expect to stay in the conference race for the title.

HURON HIGHLIGHTS

by Bill Forster

The proud Hurons of Eastern Michigan College went down to their first defeat in one and one-half years of I.I.A.C. play last Saturday at Central Michigan, 7-6. The outstaning factors in the contest were the sagging Huron offense, some dubious officiating, and the tremendous Eastern defense.

Throughout the course of the game, especially the first half, the Huron ball-carriers handled the "pigskin" as if the retention of it would jeopardize their position in the world.

However, by comparison, it must be said that during the second half of the ball game the offense started to march several times but was unable to apply the punch necessary to "cash in" on the scoreboard more than once.

There has been and will be much speculation on some of the officiating in the game. Although to reinterate plays which were victimized by dubious calls would be "crying," it seems quite ironical that in a game of the importance this contest possessed (both in a traditional and tangible sense) that there should be any discrepancies at all directed toward the striped-shirted gentlemen. But, the discrepancies were very apparent in the discussion of this contest.

The Huron defense was not much less than phenomonal in its constant harassing of the Chip offence. Little all-American candidate Walter Beach was held to eighty yards in nineteen carries and still was responsible for approximately three-quarters of the Chip total ground yardage.

Of course, a tough defense was anticipated by Huron rooters, but the crushing tackles administered by the linemen and backfield were picturesque, reminding one of the fabled teams of past eras.

All in all the game was interesting, although seven Huron fumbles (five of which were lost) and five missed field goal attempts by the Chips marred the contest. It was too bad (if one is allowed to dream) that the tremendous Huron line does not have a Keating or a Nicholas behind them this year.

Females Featured In New Gala Event; EMC Chic's Relays

Tau Kappa Epsilon is sponsoring a Chic's Relay this Thursday behind the tennis courts at 4:00 p.m.

The idea of this event originated with the Veterans' Club at Central Michigan College. It is quite an event at Central, drawing crowds of from 300-500 students. The Detroit Free Press is covering the relays at Central and will be here this Thursday to report on festivities here.

It is put on so that the sororities can participate in games as do most of the fraternities. The winning sorority will receive a twenty-four inch trophy, which will be retired after one sorority wins it three years in a row. If and when this happens, a new trophy will be awarded.

The games will be judged on a point system with five points awarded to each winner, three points for second, and one point for third. The sorority with the highest total will be declared winner. Judges will be Dean James M. Brown, Dean Susan B. Hill, Dean William J. Crane, and Prof. Augusta Harris.

The "relays" will include a wheel-borrow race, a leg sack race (two girls), sack race (one girl), football kick, rope jump, pie eating contest, an egg throw, an a relay of 25 yards. A hula-hoop contest may be added as a special attraction, time permiting.

The Tekes hope this event will become an annual thing. In case of inclement weather the "relay" will be held next Monday. The Echo staff is making no prediction as to the winner.
